

A top-down photograph of a ceramic tableware set arranged on a light-colored, textured surface, possibly sand. The set includes a large bowl with a sunburst pattern, a smaller bowl with a sunburst pattern, a teapot with vertical stripes, a glass, a plate with vertical stripes, and a small bowl with olives. A fork and knife are also visible. Olive branches are scattered around the set, casting shadows. The background is a soft, out-of-focus landscape.
